

The Intensive Interaction Institute

Good Practice Course

A six month mentored course (with 3 tutored study days) to develop good Intensive Interaction practices using a combination of tutoring methods, including: video evaluation of own and others' practice, expert presentations, facilitated discussions and other structured learning activities.

This course can also be delivered in service.

Course Aims: All of the course processes and materials are designed to fulfil the following aims, that by the end of the course, the trainee:

- will be able to fully understand the principles of Intensive Interaction
- will be a good practitioner in the techniques of doing Intensive Interaction
- will be able to usefully reflect on their own and others' Intensive Interaction practices
- will be able to effectively recognise and record progress with Intensive Interaction.

Course Fee: The course fee is £600. This fee includes access to experienced and qualified Intensive Interaction tutors throughout the 6 months' duration of the course, all necessary teaching materials, and refreshments and lunch during the 3 tutored course study days.

Course assessment: continuous assessment by experienced course tutors.

Dates: Next course starts with pre-course reading & preparation March 2017.

TERMS & CONDITIONS:

- This course does not entitle either the participant or their organisation the right to offer training in Intensive Interaction to fee-paying audiences. All materials distributed on this course will remain the intellectual property of Dave Hewett. Participants and their organisations will be expected to sign a contract agreeing not to use the materials for training of third parties.
- One invoice will be sent, regardless of whether your place will be dual funded. By signing the terms and conditions you will be liable to ensure the invoice is paid on time. Failure to do so may affect your attendance on the course
- Any cancellation of a place must be received in writing at least 4 weeks prior to the start date. Failure to do so will result in 100% of the fee being payable.
- Once an application form has been received, it will be deemed that a place on the course has been secured and unless a letter of cancellation is received (as above) you will be liable for 100% of the fee regardless of non attendance or dropping out of the course before completion.
- Payment will be expected within 30 days from the date of the invoice unless otherwise agreed in writing with the Intensive Interaction Institute.
- All course fees must be paid before the course commences
- In the event of unforeseen circumstances, we reserve the right to cancel or alter parts of the course
- Successful completion of this course entails attending all three days of the course; where this is not possible you will be expected to give 48 hours' notice, or as soon as possible before the block commences.
- Delegates will be expected to complete assigned paperwork, i.e. observation sheets, contact notes, progress tracks etc. during normal working hours in the course of their workplace role.
- Delegates will also be expected to have access to and use of video equipment to film Intensive Interaction practice within their working environment. It is the responsibility of the organisation sending delegates to obtain all necessary consents for the use of video material on the course. Video material must be brought to the course in a suitable format for viewing on a DVD or memory stick, SD card.
- It will be necessary for delegates to bring video material, assigned paperwork and other course materials to each day. Failure to do so may result in a delegate being deemed to have not successfully completed the course.
- It is a stipulation of the course that attendees read materials between course days.
