Tuesday 6th November 2018

Kents Hill Park Training and Conference Centre, Timbold Drive, Milton Keynes
MK7 6BZ

This year's Intensive Interaction Conference will look at the underlying processes of effectively developing Intensive Interaction as a care, educational or therapeutic intervention across a variety of different working and care contexts.

Across all the presentations and facilitated workshops the main focus of this conference will be on developing a greater understanding of some of the underlying processes required to support successful Intensive Interaction implementation and development, both generally and specifically for their service users, clients, students or family members.

Whether or not you have previous experience of Intensive Interaction or our annual conferences, delegates can be sure to go away with new and useful practical insights and improved Intensive Interaction related knowledge.

12.20pm	'Embedding Intensive Interaction Down-under' Australian video interviews with Dave Hewett	3.10pm	~ Afternoon refreshments and 'posting questions' ~
12.40pm	~ Lunch, networking and 'posting questions' ~	3.30pm	'Conference Full Panel Questions'
		4.00pm	Chairs' Closing Remarks, Evaluations and Close

After you have attended this conference you will have a better understanding of:

- ▶ the rationale for using Intensive Interaction across a range of different working or care contexts
- ▶ ideas to develop and sustain best quality Intensive Interaction practices at an individual or service level
- ▶ ideas on how to measure progress and practice of service users/learners, and of practitioners as well.

Who should attend?

This conference is suitable for: teachers, parents, carers, support staff, SLTs, OTs, LD nurses, psychiatrists, psychologists, therapists, social workers, service managers and commissioners: Indeed this conference is ideally suited for anyone who wants to develop Intensive Interaction for the benefit of their service users, clients, students or family members.
